

Established by the Times Publishing Company

44 TO 69 PARK ROW, NEW YORK.

THURSDAY EVENING, DEC. 1.

SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD

(including postage)

PER MONTH.....$3.50
FOR YEAR.....$34.50

Vol. 33.....No. 11,420
Entered at the Post-Office at New York as second class matter.

BEP BRANCH OFFICES,
WORLD UPTOWN OFFICE—1267 BROADWAY,
ONE HUNDRED TWENTY-SIXTH, NEW YORK.
WORLD HARLEM OFFICE—128TH ST. AND MADISON AVE.
BROOKLYN—309 WASHINGTON ST.
PHILADELPHIA, PA.—LEADER BUILDING, 112
EAST CHESTNUT, WASHINGTON—610 LIBRARY.

THE WORLD will not, under any circumstances, hold itself responsible for the return or non-delivery of any rejected manuscripts, pictures, or photographs, or manuscripts. No exceptions will be made to this rule with regard to either letters or inclosures. Nor will the editor enter into correspondence concerning unanswerable manuscripts.

NOVEMBER FOR TEN YEARS

| Year. | No. of Papers | Average per paper. |
|---------------------------|---------------|--------------------------|
| 1882. | 1,301,670 | 45.380 |
| 1883. | 10,005 | 260,720 |
| 1884. | 29,675 | 359,298 |
| 1885. | 4,000,810 | 353,774 |
| 1886. | 330,650 | 357,736 |
| 1887. | 318,390 | 280,472 |
| 1888. | 318,100 | 367,476 |
| 1889. | 240,410 | 456,486 |
| 1890. | 318,670 | 606,745 |
| 1891. | 311,280 | 426,872 |
| 1892. | 313,420 | 394,100 |
| 1893. | 316,510 | 390,381 |
| 1894. | 315,470 | 281,839 |
| 1895. | 314,000 | 377,439 |
| 1896. | 244,150* | 360,400 |
| 1897. | 316,630 | 366,885 |
| 1898. | 306,590 | 373,040 |
| 1899. | 306,290 | 354,003 |
| 1900. | 310,080 | 379,039 |
| 1901. | 306,000 | 277,588 |
| 1902. | 323,350 | 361,617 |
| 1903. | 326,570* | 365,942 |
| 1904. | 310,000 | 382,644 |
| 1905. | 320,140 | 262,170 |
| 1906. | 310,510 | 367,650 |
| 1907. | 274,110 | 361,532 |
| 1908. | 302,000 | 277,588 |
| 1909. | 317,580 | 349,127 |
| 1910. | 230,100* | 344,507 |
| 1911. | 300,010 | 353,854 |
| Total. | 9,271,590 | 10,913,897 |
| Weekly and semi-weekly | 529,600 | 853,193 |
| Grand total. | 8,681,210 | 11,767,000 |
| Average per day. | 326,767 | 392,269 |
| Morning edition only. | | |

The Evening World Prints Associated Press News.

Congress next week.
The Monetary Conference is conducted in stage whispers.

Make a merry Christmas for the children of the very poor.

It is the forger who continually steals another man's good name.

There is no way to muzzle the principals in the Deacon concatenations of scandals.

Wall street rumor has done a good deal with Jay Gould. What would it do without him?

The vanishing bank-notes act is being performed with startling realism on some express money packages.

Now it is a Secretary of Public Health that somebody imposes for the Cabinet. There are plenty of officials already to fill the public pulse.

Somebody saw a moon rainbow last night. Such a phenomenon is worth looking at, but what cold closing it would make on a November evening.

Murderer Hallinger, in Jersey City, is at last losing hope. Some of the people like to see prompt justice done to a confessed criminal of his type began to lose their hope long ago.

Rural Long Island appears to have had quite a blizzard all to itself, telling nobody of it till to day. But it didn't by any means originate the act of having a nice racket and saying nothing.

Ten tons of comet material appear to have struck Colorado in a hum. Quite a solid piece. But his cometship has got to do much better if he wants to give Mother Earth even as much as a black eye.

Superintendent Smith says the Jersey City police force does not do its duty. It is difficult to imagine a more serious charge against such a body. The Superintendent's suggestion of a shake-up might be well taken.

As a rule Elevated Railway passengers can find annoyances enough after entering the cars. The police do more than well to arrest those parties who begin the annoyance before the intending rascengers have reached a train.

STREET CLEANING.

COMMISSIONER BRENNAN replies to the allegations made by Prof. CHANDLER, in his letter to Major GRAYST, pointing out defects in the execution of the new Street-Cleaning law. The Commissioner does not deny that street sweepings are left for hours in the gutters; that covered carts are not used in the removal of rubbish and ash; that the block system of hand sweeping has not yet been established; that carts are still stored in the street. But he explains that rough weather has prevented the crews from going to sea; that old contracts made with the owners of open carts have not yet expired; that the block system is not yet ready; that carts continue to be stored in the streets because the city has no yard to put them in. The condition of the streets has been certainly improved under Mr. BRENNAN, and the people are disposed to give him every opportunity to perfect his work. But, considering the very large amount of money and the great power at his command, his replies to Prof. CHANDLER's very proper criticisms are not altogether satisfactory. Refuse might surely be removed to the dumping grounds, even if the sevens are weather-bound, and not left to rot in the gutters. Covered carts, necessary to clean streets, ought to be used, despite contracts. With an unlimited amount of money and armies of unemployed in the city, enough men ought to be secured to carry out the block system promptly. The city might have secured a storage-yard for carts long ago.

The people are liberal and indulgent to Commissioner BRENNAN, but he must carry out the law and keep the streets clean in earnest.

MISTAKEN CLEMENT.

An attempt is being made to secure the release from prison of the persons convicted of frauds on the ballot-box in New Jersey. The pardon of these men when their terms of imprisonment have just commenced would make justice a farce. The crime for which they are undergoing punishment is a most serious and unfortunately a very common one. It would be encouraged and increased if a conviction, always difficult to secure, should be nullified by a pardon.

We have had too many cases of leniency recently towards men, whose position, means and intelligence make their criminals the more horrid. The President has just released a bank robber whose crime impoverished hundreds of people, on the pretense that his health is not good. Gov. FLOWER has since turned loose a similar rascal from Sing Sing. A convict who is undergoing imprisonment for stealing to support a starving family would fail to obtain a pardon from President or Governor if he were dying in jail. Indeed, no person would take the trouble to ask his release.

HELPING THE CORPORATIONS.

The Park Board yesterday voted in favor of the New York Central Railroad's resolution to keep the draws of the Hudson River bridges at Madison and Third avenues closed at all times except between 6 and 10 o'clock in the forenoon and 4 and 7 o'clock in the afternoon.

This resolution is solely in the interest of the Vanderbilt corporation, of which the present Park Board seems to be the willing agent.

It is very questionable whether the Park Commissioners have any authority to thus interfere with the navigation of a river.

If they can keep the draws of the bridges closed for seventeen hours out of the twenty-four, they can readily force them to be opened at all, and thus wholly destroy navigation. Where do they get such authority? It is up to the interests injured by the closing, and that the War Department may be heard from on the subject.

The Vanderbilt corporation has long been seeking to destroy the river for the benefit of its railroad tracks, at the cost of millions to the city, and the Park Commission has done its utmost to help forward the iniquitous scheme.

The next Cabinet resignation seems likely to bear a Spanish accent.

Is there no way to muzzle the principals in the Deacon concatenations of scandals?

Wall street rumor has done a good deal with Jay Gould. What would it do without him?

The vanishing bank-notes act is being performed with startling realism on some express money packages.

Now it is a Secretary of Public Health that somebody imposes for the Cabinet. There are plenty of officials already to fill the public pulse.

Somebody saw a moon rainbow last night. Such a phenomenon is worth looking at, but what cold closing it would make on a November evening.

Murderer Hallinger, in Jersey City, is at last losing hope. Some of the people like to see prompt justice done to a confessed criminal of his type began to lose their hope long ago.

Rural Long Island appears to have had quite a blizzard all to itself, telling nobody of it till to day. But it didn't by any means originate the act of having a nice racket and saying nothing.

Ten tons of comet material appear to have struck Colorado in a hum. Quite a solid piece. But his cometship has got to do much better if he wants to give Mother Earth even as much as a black eye.

Superintendent Smith says the Jersey City police force does not do its duty. It is difficult to imagine a more serious charge against such a body. The Superintendent's suggestion of a shake-up might be well taken.

As a rule Elevated Railway passengers can find annoyances enough after enter-

HAVE YOU A HEART?

Do the Miseries and Sufferings of Others Reach It?

Then Think of the Cheerfulness of Christmas for the Poor.

And Give Something to the Christmas Tree-Fund.

Letters containing money for the Christmas-Tree Fund should be addressed to "The New York World," Pulitzer Building.

All parcels or packages containing donations of toys, clothing, books, or other articles, should be addressed to "the Standard-Bearing Woman's" Christmas Tree Fund.

The American National, United States and Western Express Companies will convey all packages of twenty-five pounds weight and under, addressed as above, free of charge.

The New York Transfer Company (World's Express) will call for and deliver packages free of charge on condition:

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

The Evening World.....$100.00
Mr. Adams.....$32.35
Mrs. W. C. Whitney.....$25.00
Elizabeth L. Black.....$25.00
Mrs. Chapman, N.Y.$2.00
Mrs. E. C. Williams.....$2.00
Willis and Ocker.....$2.00
Doris Eggers.....$1.00
Mrs. M. and Helen Davis.....$1.00
A. Dugay, Broad St., Louisville.....$1.00
C. C. H. and D. P. Foster.....$1.00
Mrs. Davis.....$1.00
Max and Tom McNeely.....$1.00
Lowe Little Children.....$1.00
Carrie, Margaret and Sophie Mangels.....$1.00
George Hamilton.....$1.00
Miss....$1.00
Baby Ochs and Charles Scherzer.....$1.00
Mrs. C. H. and J. C. Tamm.....$1.00
Baby Ochs and CHARLES SCHERZER, 407 West Thirty-first street.

A Strict Little Democrat.

From Ethel and Florence.

Instead, send 10 cents. We hope it may help to make some little heart glad on Christmas Day. Little Ethel and Florence, One Hundred and Sixty-fifth street.

Baby Ochs to Baby Ruth.

Instead, send 10 cents for the Baby Ruth Christmas-Tree Fund, hoping the little children will have a merry Christmas. Burton R. Cleveland.

Baby Ochs and CHARLES SCHERZER, 407 West Thirty-first street.

Little Democrat.

Read every evening in your paper of the Baby Ruth Christmas-Tree Fund. I like Christmas myself, but I suppose the little ones like it better. Instead please send $1. Which I hope will make some little ones happy. Peppy Parker, Little Democrat.

Philadelphia's Femine Physicians.

The women physicians of Philadelphia are credited with receiving very large incomes for their services. Some average $10,000 a year, others $20,000.

Lemon Juice vs. Vinegar.

Lemon juice is far more retarding and heating than vinegar in preparing cold-soup; and it is the same with sliced tomatoes; the tomatoes are sliced, with salt between and fairly drenched in lemon juice, make a most delicious relish. Very hot water—about half a cup—with the juice of a lemon and a trifle of salt added will cool a head and sweeten lemonade when winter is fairly with us. The glass canape "squirt" made to fit a umbrella, now in use, aid in making these lemonades.

Mayonnaise of sweetbreads.

Cream and parboil one pair of sweetbreads, and then throw them into cold water for a hair hour. Remove the fat and skin and cover them with fresh boiling water; add a dash of salt and simmer gently for twenty minutes. When done stand away to cool. When cold cut into thin slices. Wash and dry the tender leaves from one head of lettuce. Rub the bottom of a soup dish with onion and make in it neatly a halvepint of mayonnaise. Place a thin slice of onion in the centre of your salad dish, arrange the lettuce leaves around it; mix the sweetbread, carefully with the mayonnaise and put in the centre of the dish. Serve. This is a delicious salad, and if prepared as directed will have only the faintest suspicion of onion. Tarragon vinegar added to the mayonnaise is a great improvement.

Scop or Chair-Roll.

This very short vest has a straight border at the bottom; the back is plain; the fronts are open in heart-shape and trimmed with large, pointed bows of silk, forming turned-overs of the vest.

Winter Night Fun.

A peanut hunt is lots of fun for an evening party. The hostess hides peanuts in all sorts of queer places about the room, sometimes putting two or three nuts in the same place. Then she provides each of her guests with a little basket tied with ribbon and the hunt begins. All is certain that the "finders" are compared. The one who has the largest number wins the first prize, while the others are given smaller prizes.

One That Loves Little Children.

Instead please send 50 cents for the Baby Ruth Christmas-Tree Fund, hoping it will make some child happy.

May and Tom, 50 Cents.

Instead please send 50 cents for the Christmas-Tree Fund. May and Tom McNeely, 6 East One Hundred and Thirtieth street.

From Their Bank.

We send you instead our usual $1 for your Christmas Tree, and we hope it will bring you many more.

Of course they would. Their little letters would tell your wife, while all the world around them was abuzz with the joyful story of the festival, do you not think their simple words would sink into your hearts and their words would bring them to your pockets, and cause you to feel that it was your chief duty to help them?

Even though you are reading one of these sentimental letters, let it tell you that the world is full of love, and that the world is full of joy.

MADELINE AND HELEN THOMAS.

Lovely Little Children.

Instead please send 50 cents for the Baby Ruth Christmas-Tree Fund, hoping it will make some child happy.

One That Loves Little Children.

Instead please send 50 cents for the Baby Ruth Christmas-Tree Fund, hoping it will make some child happy.

May and Tom, 50 Cents.